BE EQUIPPED TO TAKE YOUR FIRST STEPS TOWARD YOUR MUSLIM NEIGHBOR.

Learn from experts about exciting and relevant topics like:

- Facing Fears
- The Refugee Experience
- The Basics of Islam
- Women in Islam
- Hospitality
- Practical Do's and Don'ts
- And More!

Get your burning questions answered through Q&A panels, and participate in practical breakout sessions and workshops.

Whether this is your first introduction to Islam or you already have some experience, this conference is for you! All local churches are welcome.

Mike Urton

Rev. Mike Urton, DMin., is the Director of Immigrant Mission for the EFCA. He has served among the Muslim and Muslim Background Believer population of Chicago for 19 years. In that time, he has helped to launch and give leadership to the Muslim Background Believer Fellowship of Chicagoland (MBBFC) as well as to assist local churches in engaging Muslim communities. He has co-led COMMA (Coalition of Ministries to Muslims in North America) both nationally and regionally, and he co-authored the 6-week study "Journey to Jesus: Building Christ-Centered Friendships with Muslims."

Amani Mustafa

Born into an Islamic Egyptian family, Amani Mustafa's journey to freedom in Christ is a compelling story of faith, hope and courage. She credits the miraculous hand of God for her escape from the Middle East. Today Amani is the Host and Producer of an exciting TV show, The Muslim Woman, on Al Hayat Christian Channel. The Muslim Woman program reaches hundreds of millions of Arabic speaking households.
